BIDS SUBMITTED FOR CITY BONDS

For the first time, it is said, since the civil war, New York is in the field to purchase Texas bonds, as was evidenced by the opening of the bids submitted on the purchase of the $408.000 worth of municipal bonds recently voted, by the city council Wednesday morning. One New York firm submitted bilds for the purchase of the city bonds. It was W. M. Robler & company. Well Roth & company, of Circlement and Oils & company, of company. Well Roth & company, of Cincinnatt, and Otis & company, of Cleveland, also made bids. The first named offered $6312 premium on all the honds and the second, a bid of the bonds and the second, a bid of $7.020 premium. The third company offered a premium of $4.255.

While definite action on the matter of accepting a bid on the municipal bonds was delayed antil this afternoon than the country of t

when the city council will again meet at 3 oclock, it is believed that the bonds will be awarded to the Commerce unconditional one, that company agreeing to accept the bonds here and hand over the money immediately.

Two local bidders appeared among
